2 of 2 review helpful Why Can t We Lick Museum Exhibits Anymore By EOD As a former student of history I was so SO pleased with this book my concentrations were never in French history or the Enlightenment but now how I wish they were Exploring the history and popular thinking on every one of the senses reading about how people could trust more their sense of touch or smell over eyesight for example or how they used Sight smell hearing taste and touch as they were celebrated during the Enlightenment and as they are perceived today Blindfolding children from birth Playing a piano made of live cats Using tobacco to cure drowning Wearing ldquo flea rdquo colored clothes These actions may seem odd to us but in the eighteenth century they made perfect sense As often as we use our senses we rarely stop to think about their place in history ldquo Carolyn Purnell rsquo s insightful survey of the ways Enlightenment thinkers made sense of their world offers exciting new perspectives on how we see smell hear taste and touch our own As entertaining as it enlightening The Sensational Past
