From Philosophy to Philology is an indispensable work on the intellectual life of China rsquo s literati in the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries While there was not a scientific revolution in China there was an intellectual one The shock of the Manchu conquest and the collapse of the Ming dynasty in 1644 led to a rejection of the moral self cultivation that dominated intellectual life under the Ming China rsquo s scholars particularly in the Yangzi River

Basin Elman has offered us a remarkable view of scholarship in eighteenth century China This is a very important book The Journal of Asian History Mr Elman places his eighteenth century thinkers in a richly evoked setting Jonat
