By Kuir è Garang : Is 'Black' Really Beautiful?: Dehumanizing and Intentional Ethics of Descriptions and Vilifying Philosophies of Naming Is 'Black' Really Beautiful?: Dehumanizing and Intentional Ethics of Descriptions and Vilifying Philosophies of Naming:

Is Black Really Beautiful presents a racially decentered discourse on race racism and color It maintains that who people are ontically speaking and the color that has been used to describe them aren t one and the same In other words Blackness in itself isn t Africanness and Whiteness isn t Europeanness So how a group of people is racially described should be taken with moral priority because descriptions affect the social consciousness
