0 of 2 review helpful Five Stars By John Devin Allred There is nothing that cannot be understood about the modern world and our time by reading Jean Baudrillard's "Watching the President's Christmas message produces this necropolar white mass sensation. Seeing the video broadcast of the Christmas service in the cathedral itself with these pathetic screens and the young worshippers slumped around them here and there you tell yourself that God and religion deserved better. Deserved to die yes but not this. However watching the presidential figure and his sonorous inanity you tell yourself that here at least you go. A sharp shooting lone ranger of the post-Marxist left New York Times. The most important French thinker of the past twenty years J.G. Ballard. The most influential prophet of the media since Marshall McLuhan.
