Published in 1923 On Dialogic Speech is the first study devoted entirely to the concrete ways in which we interact and communicate with each other through language. A groundbreaking exploration of the linguistic, psycho-physiological, and socio-political dimensions of dialogue, On Dialogic Speech presciently describes and theorizes our own contemporary culture of social media: Tweeting, texting, messaging, emailing, facetimeing. On Dialogic Speech has about the Author: Russian linguist Lev Petrovich Yakubinsky (1892-1945) attended the University of Petersburg from 1909-15 during a period of academic renewal and challenge in Russian linguistics which had hitherto been dominated by the neogrammarian study of language.
